

DAAD Prize 2022 for International Students at RWTH Aachen University

The DAAD Prize awards academically excellent international students and PhD candidates for their social and intercultural engagement.

Who can nominate you?

- RWTH Aachen University faculties, university organizations, RWTH student associations and the student union AStA can nominate international students and PhD students for the 2022 DAAD Award
- Students cannot apply for the prize themselves; they have to be nominated by the institutions mentioned above. Please approach your faculty's study advisor in case you are looking for someone to nominate you.

What are the requirements?

- Social/ intercultural engagement
- Good academic performance

Who is eligible?

- International students at RWTH Aachen University (Bachelor: at least 3rd semester, Master: at least 2nd semester, or students who have recently completed their studies in the last three months)
- PhD students at RWTH Aachen University
- Exchange students and students who have acquired a German university entrance qualification (Bildungsinländer) or students who have already received the DAAD Award cannot be considered.

Prize Money

- € 1,000.

Nominations have to be sent via email to the International Office

Ms. Chiara Weber, International Office, Phone: 80-90833, Email: chiara.weber@zhv.rwth-aachen.de

The nominations should include a short nomination letter, a transcript of records, a CV and certificates of the academic and social / intercultural extracurricular achievements. In case you have any questions regarding the DAAD prize, please contact Ms. Weber.

Deadline: June 15, 2022